2. Approval of November 2015 Commission Hearing Minutes.

Proposed Consent Calendar Items 3 – 24 Enforcement Matters

Unlawful Contributions from Foreign Principals

3. In the Matter of No on Government Waste, No on Measure B, Major Funding by Manwin USA; Diane Duke; Froytal Services Limited; and Mindgeek USA Incorporated F.K.A. Manwin USA, Inc.; FPPC Case No. 15/1133. Staff: Enforcement Chief Galena West, Senior Commission Counsel Neal Bucknell, Special Investigator Simon Russell. In November 2012, Measure B was approved by the voters of Los Angeles County. No on Government Waste, No on Measure B, Major Funding by Manwin USA was a primarily formed ballot measure committee. Diane Duke was the committee treasurer and principal officer. Froytal Services Limited was a foreign business entity. Manwin USA, Inc. was incorporated under Delaware law and registered in California as an out-of-state corporation. Froytal and Manwin USA both were subsidiaries of Manwin Licensing International S.A.R.L., a Luxembourg-based internet video and online advertising conglomerate, which specialized in pornography. This case involves: (i) the making of unlawful contributions by foreign principals in connection with a ballot measure, in violation of Government Code Section 85320, subdivisions (a) and (c) (1 count (Froytal), 5 counts (Manwin USA)); (ii) acceptance of the unlawful contributions by Duke and the No on B committee, in violation of Government Code Section 85320, subdivision (b) (5 counts); (iii) false reporting of the true source of the Froytal contribution by Duke and the No on B committee, in violation of Government Code Section 84211, subdivision (f) (1 count); (iv) failure of Duke and the No on B committee to change the committee name and identify the committee with a name or phrase reflecting that the adult film industry was the source of major funding, in violation of Government Code Section 84504, subdivisions (a) and (c) (1 count); (v) failure to file late contribution reports, in violation of Government Code Section 84203, subdivisions (a) and (b) (2 counts (Manwin USA)); and (vi) failure of Duke and the No on B committee to file late contribution reports regarding receipt of non-monetary contributions from Manwin USA, in violation of Government Code Section 84203, subdivisions (a) and (b), and 84203.3, subdivision (b) (1 count). Total Proposed Penalty: $61,500.

Laundered Campaign Contributions

4. In the Matter of Dakshin Indian Restaurant, LLC, dba Anjappar Chittinad Indian Restaurant; FPPC No. 15/075. Staff: Enforcement Chief Galena West and Special Investigator George Aradi. Dakshin Indian Restaurant is a business in Milpitas, California. Asker Junaid is, and was at all relevant times, a part-owner and the operator of Dakshin Indian Restaurant as well as two other businesses in the Milpitas area. Dakshin Indian Restaurant made contributions totaling $3,000 in the names of others to Esteves for Mayor 2012 and Deb Giordano City Council 2012, candidates for Milpitas Mayor and Milpitas City Council, in the November 6, 2012 election instead of its own legal name, in violation of Government Code Section 84301 (6 counts). Total Proposed Penalty: $30,000.

Over-the-Limit Contributions

5. In the Matter of Jeff Stone for State Senate 2014, Jeff Stone, and Dana Hopkins; FPPC No. 14/402. Staff: Assistant Chief of Enforcement Dave Bainbridge and Special Investigator Simon Russell. State Senator Jeff Stone, his committee Jeff Stone for State Senate 2014, and the committee's treasurer Dana Hopkins, received cumulative contributions that exceeded the contribution limit in violation of Government Code Section 85301, subdivision (a) (1 count), and failed to timely disclose receiving a contribution of $100 or more in violation of Government Code Section 84211, subdivisions (a), (c), and (f) (1 count). Total Proposed Penalty: $5,500.

6. In the Matter of Daniel Stephenson, et al.; FPPC No. 15/1545. Staff: Assistant Chief of Enforcement Dave Bainbridge and Special Investigator Simon Russell. Daniel Stephenson directed various entities under his control to make contributions to Jeff Stone for State Senate 2014 that exceeded the contribution limit, in violation of Government Code Section 85301, subdivision (a) (1 count). Stephenson, et al., also failed to timely file a major donor campaign statement disclosing their contributions, in violation of Government Code Section 84200, subdivision (b) (1 count). Total Proposed Penalty: $5,500.

Campaign Reporting

7. In the Matter of Angel Santiago, Friends of Angel Santiago for Inland Empire Utilities Agency Director Division 4, and Valerie Santiago; FPPC Case No. 13/547 (Default Decision). Staff: Senior Commission Counsel Neal Bucknell and Special Investigator Ann Flaherty. In 2010, Angel Santiago was a successful candidate for re-election to the Inland Empire Utilities Agency Board of Directors. Friends of Angel Santiago for Inland Empire Utilities Agency Director Division 4 was his candidate controlled committee and Valerie Santiago was the committee treasurer. In 2010, 2011, and early 2012, the Santiago's and Friends of Angel Santiago for Inland Empire Utilities Agency Director Division 4 failed to timely file: semiannual campaign statements, in violation of Government Code Section 84200, subdivision (a) (3 counts); two preelection campaign statements, in violation of Government Code Sections 84200.5, subdivision (b), and 84200.7, subdivision (b) (2 counts); and four 24 hour contribution reports, in violation of Government Code Section 84203 (4 counts). In addition, Angel Santiago and Friends of Angel Santiago for Inland Empire Utilities Agency Director Division 4 used cash to make campaign expenditures of $100 or more, in violation of Government Code Section 84300, subdivision (b) (1 count). Total Proposed Penalty: $32,000.

8. In the Matter of Tara Flanagan, Tara Flanagan for Superior Court Judge 2012, and Carol Pranka; FPPC Case No. 14/600. Staff: Senior Commission Counsel Neal Bucknell and Program Specialist Soni Mangat. This matter arose from an audit performed by the Political Reform Audit Program of the Franchise Tax Board. In 2012, Tara Flanagan was a successful candidate for Alameda County Superior Court Judge. Tara Flanagan for Superior Court Judge 2012 was her candidate controlled committee and Carol Pranka was the committee treasurer. Pranka made two loans to Flanagan—totaling $25,000—for political purposes. Flanagan deposited the checks into personal accounts and then wrote checks for identical amounts to her controlled committee. On or about May 23, 2012, Flanagan and Pranka filed a preelection campaign statement on behalf of the Flanagan committee for the reporting period of March 18, 2012 through May 19, 2012. Both contributions from Pranka were disclosed on the filing. However, instead of reporting that Pranka was the true source of the loans, the contributions were disclosed as personal loans from Flanagan to her own committee, in violation of Government Code Sections 84211, subdivisions (f) and (g), and 84216 (1 count). Also, Pranka failed to file a major donor semiannual campaign statement for the reporting period of January 1, 2012 through June 30, 2012, in violation of Government Code section 84200, subdivision (b). Total proposed penalty: $6,000.

9. In the Matter of Students for Sensible Drug Policy, David Bronner, Adam Eidinger, and Alan Amsterdam Committee to Regulate Cannabis-Yes on 19 and Aaron Houston; FPPC No. 14/603. Staff: Senior Commission Counsel Bridgette Castillo. This matter arose out of an audit performed by the Political Reform Audit Program of the Franchise Tax Board. Students for Sensible Drug Policy, David Bronner, Adam Eidinger, and Alan Amsterdam Committee to Regulate Cannabis-Yes on 19 was a state primarily formed ballot measure committee to support Proposition 19, sponsored by Students for Sensible Drug Policy, Inc., in connection with the November 2, 2010 General Election. Aaron Houston was the committee treasurer. Students for Sensible Drug Policy, David Bronner, Adam Eidinger, and Alan Amsterdam Committee to Regulate Cannabis-Yes on 19 and Houston, failed to timely disclose required financial activity on the semiannual campaign statement for the reporting period October 17, 2010 through December 31, 2010, in violation of Government Code Section 84211, subdivisions (b), (i), (j) and (k) (1 count) and failed to maintain required campaign records for the semiannual campaign statement for the reporting period October 17, 2010 through December 31, 2010, in violation of Government Code Section 84104 (1 count). Total Proposed Penalty: $4,500.

General Items 25 – 26

25. Amend Regulation 18996: Scope of Audits and Investigations. Staff: Hyla Wagner, General Counsel and Matthew Christy, Commission Counsel. Staff proposes that the Commission amend Regulation 18996 to state the scope of mandatory audits and investigations of local candidates and their controlled committees conducted pursuant to Government Code Section 90001, and to codify the FPPC's authority to avoid redundant audits or investigations by excluding those jurisdictions already subject to audit by the FPPC or a local agency from the random selection of jurisdictions for audit conducted pursuant to Regulation 18991.

26. Amend Regulation 18944.1 Gifts: Agency Provided Tickets or Passes. Staff: Hyla Wagner, General Counsel and Val Joyce, Commission Counsel. Amendments to Regulation 18944.1 are proposed to set a deadline by which agencies must post information about tickets or passes they distribute to their employees and to require agencies to post this information on their website, which they currently send to the Commission. The Commission's website will provide a link to the agency's post. The changes will promote timely disclosure and benefit members of the public by placing the reports on the website they are most likely to search.
